September 14, 2020 -

Woodinville, WA - Northwest Trophy and Awards is a store known in the community for selling?promotional items in Woodinville, WA, and is highlighting a recent donation by owners Seth and Cassie Breckenridge. Seth and Cassie recently donated medals and t-shirts to the Woodinville Center Summer Virtual 5k race.?

The virtual 5k was an idea brought to life by the circumstances surrounding the recent pandemic. The event started on August 22nd, 2020, and lasted one week ending on August 29th, 2020. Participants could complete the 5k anywhere they desired, including trails around the community and treadmills. The event was open to runners, walkers, strollers, and joggers to celebrate motion and uplift the community during this uncertain time.?

All proceeds from the race went to Woodinville Center, which is a non-profit membership organization. The organization serves as the voice for the businesses in the local community, along with providing space for local businesses to network and come together to support the local community through the Celebrate Woodinville event series.?

The t-shirts and medals sported the vibrant purple Celebrate Woodinville events are known for, and proudly displayed the events logo. The t-shirts highlighted the event's sponsors and were provided in all sizes from kids who ran with their parents, to the elderly who strolled their way through the 5k.?

Northwest Trophy and Awards is proud that Seth and Cassie are willing to support the community by providing donations to such a great cause. Northwest Trophy and Awards has been family owned and operated for over 80 years. The company provides a variety of products and services, including eagle awards, gift items, medals, and custom engraving in Woodinville, WA.
