The Straight Arrow Roofing customer review in question was written by Hemang Patel through this space, where they say, "We just got our roof done by Straight Arrow Roofing and what a difference. Joel and his crew did an amazing job and great workmanship. Glen and Zack are the best crew. From the time they started to finish the job, every detail was looked after. Joel did make sure he covered every question and concern to get the job done in a professional and timely fashion. Our property was thoroughly cleaned and inspected after the job was done. I would highly recommend Straight Arrow Roofing."

Reviews like these are common when it comes to Straight Arrow Roofing as they are well known for their attentiveness and excellent craftsmanship. Another comment by Kent Wallace says, "I can't say enough good things about Joel and his team. From start to finish, these guys are all top quality professional roofers. They did a fantastic job on my roof, especially considering the heatwave we had been going through. Joel explained the process in great detail and keeps in touch with great communication, so you know when things are getting delivered, when the boys will be arriving to start the work, and when they should be finished. Pricing is as good as you will find for the quality of work they do, I did my homework."
