Jackson Heights, Queens based K L Sanchez Law Office is pleased to offer their services to those seeking legal consultation for car accidents, construction injuries, workers compensation, criminal cases and more. K L Sanchez Law Office is a local firm that practices personal injury law, workers compensation law, criminal law and immigration law in Jackson Heights, Queens and Bronx, NY. It is run by Keetick Sanchez.

Keetick Sanchez is a Spanish-speaking Queens accident lawyer that serves one of the most diverse communities in the United States. She graduated from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law School in 2016 and has been elected as a member of the Touro Law Alumni Association Executive Board. While in law school, she worked as a trial litigation paralegal for personal injury cases. After she graduated, she became a litigator in a personal injury firm and quickly earned her reputation as a resilient and tenacious attorney through hundreds of personal injury case investigations and prosecutions. She is known for her friendly one-on-one demeanor and her aggressive representation in court.

K L Sanchez Law Office, the firm she founded, often handles car accident cases. Car accidents can happen to anyone and suffering injuries due to other people's negligence can be a heavy burden. K L Sanchez Law Office makes sure that their clients know what to do in case a car accident occurs. The firm will also represent their clients to the best of their ability and stand up for their rights so the latter can focus on recuperating. K L Sanchez Law Office works hard to get clients the compensation they deserve for the injuries they have suffered.

The firm also handles construction accident cases, well aware of the fact that working in construction places workers in extremely hazardous conditions. In fact, thousands are seriously injured or killed each year while working at construction sites in New York alone. Due to these hazards, the state of New York has very specific laws to safeguard construction workers from work site-related accidents. These laws create an obligation to make sure that all construction work site safety measures are taken. If workers are seriously injured due to these laws not being followed, the people in charge of the workers? safety must be held responsible. K L Sanchez Law Office ensures that victims of construction accidents are given top notch attention.

K L Sanchez Law Office does not just offer Queens personal injury attorney services. They can also handle a wide range of criminal cases, such as driving while intoxicated, driving under influence, domestic violence, possession of marijuana and other narcotics, larceny and assault. They aggressively defend their clients? rights in every criminal case they handle. Additionally, the law firm can help with immigration, divorce and worker?s compensation cases. Thanks to the firm?s top-notch legal services, they have received positive reviews from many previous clients.
