Clean Group Provides NDIS Cleaning Services

September 23, 2020

SYDNEY, NSW - September 23, 2020 -
Sydney, New South Wales-based Clean Group is pleased to announce that they are now providing cleaning services for those who are in the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS). Clean Group has established themselves as a provider of professional yet affordable cleaning services for both residential and commercial clients.

Suji Siv, a representative for Clean Group, says, ?NDIS support workers, participants and members all lead a very involved life. As such, we feel that it is our duty to do our part in helping them as much as possible. The team at Clean Group is dedicated to helping disabled people lead a whole and healthy life. That means regular, thorough cleaning of their living spaces ? as part of our NDIS cleaning services package, we offer a wide range of services both in and around the homes of NDIS participants. Whether it?s simple cleaning, decluttering, furniture cleaning, laundry, garden maintenance or anything else, we are there to help.?

Clean Group?s NDIS services cover any and all cleaning needs that a disabled person might have, and the company offers a variety of packages based on the needs of each client. Whether this is on a daily, weekly, fortnight, monthly or one-off basis, the company is always glad to lend a hand. They have also made booking an NDIS cleaning appointment a simple and straightforward process. Interested parties simply need to get in touch with Clean Group by phone or through their website to get started. Following this, a Clean Group representative will reach out to discuss the project requirements and obtain further details. Once that is done, the company will perform a pre-inspection of the site that needs cleaning and offer a quote. If the rates are accepted, Clean Group will take care of the rest and ensure a spotless living space.

Clean Group helps NDIS support workers, participants and members with the day-to-day maintenance of their homes and lives. They are able to perform a range of tasks in and around the homes of NDIS participants, including cleaning and decluttering, carpet cleaning, furniture cleaning, laundry and much more. Simply put, their goal is to give disabled people the opportunity to lead a healthy life with both effective and reliable cleaning and management of their homes. Based on their needs, the company can offer their NDIS cleaning services on a daily, weekly, fortnight, monthly or one-off basis.

Siv says, ?Clean Group has a long and prestigious history providing trustworthy cleaning services to over hundreds of businesses and residential clients. For over 20 years, we have made customer satisfaction our priority and have ensured that every single client of ours is happy with our services. As such, you can trust us to provide the best NDIS cleaning services that you can find anywhere in Australia.?

The comprehensive services provided by Clean Group have earned them praise from many of their commercial clients. In a review found on the company?s website, Terry M. says, ?I have been changing cleaners after cleaners. I lost faith in commercial cleaning and what it can do until I met Clean Group. ? The review explains, ?It was all well handled from the first meeting to the actual cleaning. They have exceptional cleaners that work very hard to maintain consistency with their job. Now, I never worry what my office will look like the following morning. I can sleep soundly knowing that Clean Group has my back, and they keep my office pretty and neat.?

Clean Group has established their reliability across all of their branches, as is made evident by the company?s Google reviews. In the Alexandria branch?s profile, a 5-Star review by Haze Blout reads, ?Clean Group was wonderful to use. We had a very unique situation and they have been quite accommodating. I managed to make a next day appointment and communicate remotely with the partner doing the cleaning. Darrel did the job for us, and I'd recommend him to anyone looking for a dedicated hard worker who's very trustworthy!?

More information about Clean Group and the variety of services provided by the company can be found at their website. In addition, Clean Group also has a Facebook page where they frequently post updates, share information and communicate with their clients. Clean Group encourages interested parties to get in touch with Suji Siv directly via email or phone. Alternatively, the company can be reached through the contact form on their website.
