

Piedmont Paint & Finish Receives High Praise From Happy Customer

September 24, 2020

Charlottesville, VA - September 24, 2020 -
Piedmont Paint & Finish, a Charlottesville, VA painting contractor, is delighted to share a new piece of customer feedback with their community. This feedback, posted online in the form of a Yelp review, illustrates many of the qualities the company strives to bring to every painting project they take on. As such, they state it is a fair representation of what customers may expect when they request the company?s services in the future.

?Piedmont Paint just completed a full exterior (including deck refinishing) and interior large paint project for our house at Wintergreen,? says the 5-Star review from Jim N. ?I can't overstate how great the job Rojo and his crew did. Along with a high quality paint job ? including significant wall repairs ? they were extremely neat, always on-time and just a great crew to work with and have around the house. I'd not hesitate to recommend them for any painting project.? While the company may primarily be known for their residential and commercial painting services, they also encourage customers to inquire after their other offerings (which include power washing among other services). This is due to the fact that they believe excellent customer service must always be a core component of their work, and this means that their community can always expect Piedmont Paint & Finish to do a comprehensive job when they arrive.

Charles Davis of Piedmont Paint & Finish explains, ?Painting a property to a customer?s satisfaction often involves a bit more work that some would expect to be out of our scope. That?s not the way we look at it, however. When you want us to paint your house, we consider it our duty to work around any obstacles that present themselves. Whether this requires a little bit of cleanup or something more intensive, we encourage you to check with our team before deciding the job is too much for your painting contractor to handle. The odds are that Piedmont Paint & Finish is exactly the company you need to give your property the attention it deserves." The company can be contacted on Facebook at: https://www.facebook.com/PiedmontPaint.

Over the years, the company has focused on delivering a consistently high standard of service in every job they have taken on. As a result, new customers can gauge how experienced the company is by taking a look at their older reviews as well. For instance, Mike D.?s 2016 review awards the company a full 5-Star rating that echoes a similar sense of satisfaction. The customer explains, ?I am very glad that I hired Piedmont Paint and Finish to paint the exterior of my house. I can say that the job was worth the 5-Star rating I gave it. The work was done within the time frame I was given, and there were no hidden charges. The quality of their work was also worthy of 5 Stars. As I write this review I can honestly state that if it were a 10-point scale, I would have no problem giving them an honest 10-point rating.?

According to Davis, the company?s residential painting services are usually contracted for farms, estates and houses, but they are willing to take on any challenge posed by other types of properties as well. These services extend to exterior and interior surfaces as well as furniture refinishing, and they serve customers in Charlottesville, Ivy, Keswick, Nellysford, Wintergreen, Stony Creek, Richmond and so on. Furthermore, given that not all property owners will be sure what they want, the company is capable of lending customers their expertise regarding color, product selections, placement and more.?

Many of these services are available for commercial properties too, and the company often works on retail properties, institutions, and medical facilities. Given how important first impressions are for retaining customers at any business, Piedmont Paint & Finish encourages local business owners to get in touch at once if their property is in need of a new coat of paint.
