Cleaning and Disinfection Should Go Hand In Hand, Says Carolina Carpet Cleaning

September 29, 2020 -
Carolina Carpet Cleaning, the Top Carpet Cleaners Beaufort, SC, advocates the two-step process to prevent viruses and diseases - cleaning and disinfection.

These two simple steps must go hand in hand to ensure a winning fight against viruses. Cleaning decreases the number of viruses present in a surface. Then disinfection destroys them, according to Carolina Carpet Cleaning.

Carpets are perfect breeding grounds for allergens. As floor cover, it catches all kinds of dirt, germs, and bacteria. The solution for this is hiring a professional carpet cleaning service to deep clean the carpet. Over the years, Carolina Carpet Cleaning has perfected the ways to clean, sanitized, and virus- free rugs.

The Beaufort-based cleaning company utilizes carbonated cleaning solutions for its services. This environmentally-safe cleaning process requires less water than typical steam cleaning. The method also does not use harsh chemicals and works harder than most chemical-based carpet cleaners. This eco-friendly process does not need carpets to be soaked with the carbonated solution; therefore, the time for carpet to dry is only one hour.

Beyond cleaning, Professional Carpet Cleaning Services in Beaufort, SC also offers disinfecting services. The cleaning service company only uses products approved by the United States Environmental Protection Agency. Their EPA-approved fogging solution kills bacteria and viruses, including coronavirus. Despite its effectiveness, the solution does not contain any harmful chemicals.

?It is safe to be in the fogged area even immediately after being treated. There is also no need to wipe the surface after fogging.?

Carolina Carpet Cleaning adds that routine cleaning of carpets helps in maintaining a healthy home. ?Routine cleaning in the house is essential. Carpets are perfect breeding grounds for allergens, and sanitation is needed to maintain good health,? the company adds further.

The company delivers five-star service for carpet cleaning, upholstery cleaning, tile and grout cleaning, and oriental rugs cleaning. The company also caters to special services such as pet odor removal and auto, boat, and camper interior cleaning. Carolina Carpet Cleaning caters to both residential and commercial establishments, no matter how small or big the project is.
