

An Employment Company in Mesa, AZ is Announcing the Addition of a New Employment Specialist

September 29, 2020

September 29, 2020 -

Mesa,Ariz.- Express Employment Professionals is a leading employment company in Mesa, AZ, that is thrilled to welcome Taylor Frost to their staff. Frost took on the role of employment specialist in June of this year and has since proven to be a valuable team member.

Frost moved from the Pacific Northwest where she worked with another staffing company as a recruiter assistant. Frost describes herself as being a people person, as she enjoys interacting with people both inside and outside the office. This quality and her past job experience make her a perfect fit for the Express family and her role as an employment specialist, matching the desire to develop strong supporting relationships.? ?

?My favorite part of working with Express is meeting new people and making new connections every day. The most rewarding part is helping people find jobs and helping clients get good workers," stated Frost, when asked about her favorite part of working with Express.

Frost?s energetic personality and ability to make people laugh helps her cultivate connections with associates to develop a pool of highly qualified candidates. Frost is passionate about her role with Express, helping her generate quality business and new leads for the Express Mesa office.

Express Employment Professionals was founded in 1983 and employs over 510,000 across hundreds of franchise locations in the United States, Canada, and South Africa. The Express Mesa office has a passion and commitment to recruiting and placing qualified candidates in jobs across Maricopa County.
