A Local Employment Agency is Highlighting a Recent Outdoor Hiring Event

September 29, 2020

September 29, 2020 -
Albany, OR.: Express Employment Professionals of Albany, Oregon, recently held an outdoor hiring event for those seeking employment opportunities in the local area. The event was a marvelous opportunity for those still struggling to find work due to the recent pandemic.

The outdoor hiring event took place on Thursday, September 3rd, at the Express Albany office located on 14th Ave. The event was open to the public and lasted from 10 AM to 2 PM. The outdoor event bloomed as a creative solution to putting people to work without risking the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19). Additionally, all participants and employees were required to wear a mask to protect the safety of everyone that attended.

The outdoor hiring event allowed candidates to submit applications in person and meet with hiring specialists to determine eligibility for open positions. Express Albany has various job openings in which the hiring event sought to fill, including but not limited to human resources specialists, production workers, receptionists, and forklift drivers. As a leading staffing company, Express strives to find professional, courteous candidates that possess strong communication skills and a strong work ethic. The outdoor hiring event allowed the Express

Albany hiring team to get to know candidates and determine if they had the desired skills and qualifications to fill the up positions.

?We invite everyone in the community to stop by, see our office and learn more about what Express has to offer both job seekers and companies anytime,? said Saphira Groves, Managing Partner.
