September 30, 2020 -
Homebuyers and sellers in South Carolina need not worry anymore about home prices as Yvette Acuff of Carson Realty offers free tools accessible on its website.

As one of the trusted Real Estate Agents in Bluffton, SC, Yvette Acuff of Carson Realty offers the online tools to help buyers and sellers better prepare for their next home transaction.

For buyers, the real estate company provides a mortgage calculator used to estimate monthly mortgage payments. Buyers just have to input a home price, down payment amount, loan term as well as interest rates. It will then show the monthly payment estimates.

Another tool also available on their website is the home valuation tools for sellers. An online estimator can help sellers determine home value. Like in the mortgage calculator, sellers have to input the information about their house to calculate its home value. Additional information, such as rooms/facilities, will also be needed.

This Real Estate Agency in Bluffton, SC, likewise features hundreds of homes on its online site - https://yvetteacuff.com/. Each home includes photos of the property and all its amenities and features.

Yvette Acuff is presently an associate broker with Carson Realty of the Lowcountry in the Bluffton office. For over 40 years, Yvette maintained her broker's license and worked closely with real estate agents to promote and sell the property to the newly growing Island and Bluffton areas. She then extended the Multiple Listing Services (MLS) to surrounding counties to enable properties in outlying areas. Yvette led the company from its infancy to be recognized as one of the top technological MLS services in the country.
