Consulting firm True North-Compass, occupying an office space in Century Office Park, was awarded an Enterprise Learning & Development (ELD) master contract.

True North is an evidence-based process consulting firm offering a wide range of solutions. Their training and consulting services focus on their clients' most critical issues and opportunities: operational excellence, business skill development, continuous improvement leadership, development, and coaching, across all industries and services.

"We bring deep, functional expertise, and are known for our evidence-based perspective and collaborative approach. Our proven process provides an improvement multiplier effect from optimizing organizational synergies and capturing value across boundaries and between the silos of any organization," says Tom Stober, president of True North.

With over 75 years of combined experience, True North's consulting team uses their proven collaborative approach to provide clients with customized training and coaching solutions focused on improvement and suitable to their organizational culture.

"Organizations and Leaders occasionally need help when moving to the next level of performance. That's where we come in. Our experienced and dedicated team can help you with creating a customized training solution focused on process and organizational improvement; one that helps you reach your goals. We are not here to 'fix you' we are here to help you find your best solution," says Stober.

Another technique True North-Compass employs is their Pathfinder System. Pathfinder utilizes a combination of industry-recognized assessments, experiential instruction, mentoring, and peer-to-peer learning to develop the leadership capacity desired by both the individual leader and the organization to which they belong.

In the coming months, True North will be working with ELD. ELD's mission is to help build skills, cultivate careers and develop leaders with Minnesota's government employees. True North will assist ELD in developing and delivering training to sharpen skills in current roles, develop potential for advancement and elevate leadership effectiveness tailored to the unique needs of state and governmental agencies.
