Dallas Law Firm's Principal Attorney Recognized for Excellence 12th Year Running

October 12, 2020

October 12, 2020 -
Dallas, TX - Kristopher Barber, principal attorney with The Barber Law Firm, an injury law practice with locations throught Dallas has been named on the "Super Lawyers" list for 2020 making this his 12th year running as an injury attorney with this distinction.

Super Lawyers, a subsidiary brand of the Thompson Reuters company and an authority source of news and information in the legal industry, maintains the "Super Lawyers" designation through a careful selection process.

According Super Lawyers, the selection process for inclusion involves 4 steps. First, peer attorneys who have witnessed the nominee work in his primary area of practice first hand must nominate the attorney. The nomination process itself includes safeguards to prevent rigged nominations or "back scratch" mutual nominations.

Next, Super Lawyers research staff compile points for the nominee based on 12 indicators such as experience factors, verdicts or settlements, academic achievements, pro bono service to others, and other such distinctions.

Third is a "blue ribbon review" which involves assembling a pannel of additional peers with experience in the nominees practice areas. The panelists review and rate the nominee on a scale of 1 to 5.

Last, nominees are grouped according to the size of the firm they are with. For example, solo attorneys are compared with other solo attorneys rather than attorneys from large firms. The top 5 percent based on prior steps are selected for each state for inclusion on the final published list.

Super Lawyers has an additional distinction called, "Rising Stars" which pertains to nominees with the additional distinction of being a Super Lawyers selection under the age of 40 or with a practice for 10 years or less. 2.5 percent of the list are awarded this additional distinction. Kristopher Barber won the "Rising Stars" distinction for the first 4 years of recognition and again on the 6th year of recognition from Super Lawyers.

The Barber Law Firm was founded by Kristopher Barber in 2008 and has grown into a prominent personal injury firm in the Dallas area, growing to include 3 additional associate attorneys and 13 supporting staff members. The Barber Law Firm has won settlements an claims for a wide range of injury victims throughout Texas with case types ranging from vehicle accidents to workers compensation cases.
