October 16, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

A Pleasant Grove, Utah-based talent agency, is pleased to announce that they have recently signed up party band Music City Groove. This is a seven-piece band and easily performs with a two or three-piece horn section. The band features musicians from all over the United States. The vocalists are some of the finest in the industry and give 100% grooving for the entire night. They can easily perform music from multiple genres, including pop, rock, country, contemporary, acoustic, Latin, jazz, reggae, Broadway, and holiday.

A spokesperson for the talent agency, says, "Music City Groove is unmatched in their phenomenal arrangements of popular songs that effortlessly blend from one song to the next. Keeping you on the dance floor hour after hour. Mixing the "Groove" of L.A. with the professionalism of "Music City" Nashville, Tennessee this band does it all."

Music City Groove is committed to putting on a non-stop concert for every person in the audience. This band has worked hard to ensure that their set list would be unique in terms of depth, versatility, and fun. These include favorite songs from popular artists like Bruno Mars, Michael Jackson, Maroon 5, Stevie Wonder, and more. The band's featured vocalist is Chad Truman, who is a seasoned and premier performer, who has more than 40 million views for his videos and has sung on six Billboard charting albums, some of which he had written and produced. He is the son of Dan Truman, who is a member of the country super group Diamond Rio.
