

Kennected Shares 5 Star Review From Jordan Armstrong of Mr. Automation

October 16, 2020

Indianapolis, Indiana - October 16, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kennected, a digital marketing company founded in 2018, is pleased to share a recent 5-Star review they earned from Jordan Armstrong, a high ticket business consultant and a founder of Mr. Automation. Kennected is famous for their LinkedIn Automation Tool, which has helped hundreds of businesses bring in a steady stream of connections, appointments and sales via LinkedIn.

In his review, Jordan Armstrong describes Kennected as "one of the best tools, best software he ever used". He goes on to say that Kennected is, "pure automation," as opposed to other software that claim automation as a buzzword without really doing much. He says that Kennected, "will actually go out, connect people that match your ideal audience and send them customized, personalized messages on your behalf to where, not only will you be able to create a massive following on LinkedIn, but also really start to engage with your followers."

Armstrong ends his review strongly by recommending Kennected, saying that, "If you're on the LinkedIn platform, or even if you're not, you need to look into Kennected right now because it will be a game changer for you and your business."

Devin Johnson, a founder of Kennected, says, "We are very glad to say that Kennected is making waves in the marketing automation field recently and stacking up a series of five star reviews. You only need to watch the latest review from Jordan Armstrong to know what makes us stand out, what sets Kennected apart from all the other marketing automation tools that saturate the industry. Kennected is special, and we're very glad to see that more and more people and businesses are realizing that."

Kennected was founded in 2018 on the backbone of strong experience from the early years of digital marketing by Devin Johnson, Cody Harvey, Elliot Drake, Stephen Twomey and Brandon Poplstein. The team's goal was to create a marketing solution that was simple but, at the same time, more effective than traditional marketing services. Today, they are proud to say that their pursuit of this goal has been extremely successful. Kennected has brought the power of lead generation and marketing to 10,000+ businesses and entrepreneurs around the world in less than two years.

Kennected's LinkedIn lead generation tool works with LinkedIn Basic & Sales Navigator to make a business's lead generation efforts both simple and automated. Businesses can now send their connection requests with ease and follow up automatically one-by-one as if they were sending them manually. The tool also integrates with FindThatLead, Hunter.io, Anymail Finder and more, making it easier to find emails right inside the LinkedIn interface and push data directly to a CRM. In addition, Kennected's Hubspot integration gives businesses the option to push a prospect's details, including all the conversations, to Hubspot. Kennected is designed to give maximum value to users.

Jordan Armstrong is hardly the only user praising Kennected. A quick look at the company's website will show a growing number of Kennected reviews that all praise the service they provide. In his review, owner of Cool Roofs, Inc. Dustin Culps says, "I just want to take some time to shout out a company that I have had extreme success with, using their platform. It's called Kennected. It has increased my interaction through LinkedIn. It has helped grow my company tremendously. If you are a contractor, I would definitely look into this!"

Meanwhile, professional videographer Andy Mork says, "Before I started using Kennected, I was cold calling businesses, reaching out via email. Kennected automated my way of prospecting and generating leads. Within three months, I was able to land $60,000 dollars in new business for a very low price. It has allowed me to reach into new markets and connect with the type of people who actually make buying decisions for their companies. This is really easy to use, I highly recommend Kennected!"

Those who want to learn more about Kennected and the variety of services that they provide are welcome to
