Kennected Receives 5 Star Review From Peter Ciravolo

October 21, 2020

Indianapolis, Indiana - October 21, 2020 -
Kennected is proud to announce that they have received yet another 5-Star review from one of their clients, Peter Ciravolo. Ciravolo?s glowing feedback is an excellent addition to the list of great testimonials that Kennected has received from their community.

In his review, Ciravolo, an insurance agency owner, says, ?My business partner and I used to go to networking events, call follow-ups and more, but we knew we needed something else to help us get to the next level. Any person knows that the special sauce is in the follow-up, and it's very time-consuming. When we started with Kennected, we started sending out 100 LinkedIn requests a day, and we started being able to send it out directly to our target market. After just a few days, we already had 15 appointments for the following week.?

The review then says, ?Eight weeks later, we consistently have 15 appointments due to Kennected. One of the most important things is to never run out of leads and get in front of people. If you are not using Kennected in your insurance business, you are missing out!? There is also a video of Ciravolo?s testimonial on Kennected?s Youtube channel. This review from Peter Ciravolo is hardly the only great review that Kennected has received. There are countless testimonials that speak positively about Kennected and the services they offer.

A similarly positive testimonial that Kennected has received comes from Hayden Dyer, a real estate agent. He says, ?I?ve got to tell you guys about this awesome platform called Kennected! I started using it for our commercial insurance agent, to recruit and train new sales agents. It is a fantastic tool. It took all the heavy lifting off me (in terms of reaching out and connecting with prospects we wanted to recruit) and allowed me to simply close. We are also able to use this platform to help us find an off-market listing for our high net worth clients. We had a client looking for a 7 million dollar listing. We blasted a message to agents in the area using Kennected. Lo and behold, we found something in less than a week! We are closing next month! Chris Hoffman at Kennected does an amazing job!?

Kennected is a Software as a Service (SaaS) company that seeks to simplify the lives of entrepreneurs and business owners by providing them with the power of automation, lead generation and education. They work with LinkedIn Basic & Sales to simplify and automate lead generation efforts. They have also built the Lead Flow Mastery education platform, which is a platform for business owners to study and learn to copywrite, LinkedIn mastery, personal branding, relationships and the usage of revolutionary marketing software.

Kennected was founded in 2018 to create a marketing solution that was simple but more effective than traditional advertising services. It was built on the years of experience in digital marketing accumulated by Devin Johnson, Cody Harvey, Elliot Drake, Stephen Twomey and Brandon Poplstein, who were ultimately successful in creating a simple and effective marketing solution. They have now brought the benefits of their marketing and lead generation solutions to more than ten thousand businesses and entrepreneurs in under two years.

The team at Kennected asserts that their mission is to inspire people to pursue their dreams and empower business professionals to achieve more impact, influence and freedom together. They seek to build a world where people value relationships over cash and are motivated to help other business professionals to succeed in their respective fields.

Those who use Kennected enjoy lots of benefits that make their jobs much easier. They can easily start and manage new campaigns and edit current ones. They experience higher response and acceptance tracking and are also able to contact up to a hundred new prospects every day. They also obtain personalized auto sequences, which help build predictable revenue. Checking responses from users, viewing profiles, deleting users and accessing conversations becomes easier for them as well.

Additionally, Kennected is integrated with FindThatLead, Hunter.io, Anymailfinder and more, which allows their users to update their prospect lists and Hubspots with important information with negligible delays. Kennected also provides a Dashboard for users to easily track and manage outreach approaches with applicable insights. Other benefits from using Kennected include teamwork security, follow-up message personalization, reply detection and follow-up automation. See another Kennected review here.
