Toby Beavers has been in real estate for more than 35 years and knows the Charlottesville market very well. When asked about his long career Toby stated, "I began my real estate career in 1996 selling exquisite 19th-century summer cottages for two years. Back when I started Zillow, Trulia, Realtor, and Redfin did not exist. My greatest joy was selling Montebello, the birth place of Zachary Taylor and the last privately-owned Presidential home."

Over his illustrious career, Toby Beavers has sold over 100 homes and has only five star review ratings. His past clients speak of him as patient, generous, very professional with unbeatable negotiating skills.

Client Ellen O' Connell wrote in her review, "Toby is a smart guy. He represented us on a fabulous home in Earlysville. He is generous, patient, and he communicated with us daily keeping us informed and up to date on the process. He made everything seamless and stress free."

Former client Alex Rasmusin wrote, "We must have seen 17 homes in Dunlora and other neighborhoods. I ran my realtor, Toby Beavers, crazy! We settled in Dunlora and he was terrific and great fun. Highly recommended!"

There is also Amanda Tyler who wrote, "I can't put into words ow grateful I am to Toby. He is a skilled professional with unbeatable negotiating skills. I got his help to purchase a historic home in Keswick. It ended up being a profitable deal. I am extremely happy with my first investment."

When asked about his work ethic and client relations, Toby Beavers stated, "I love what I do and it shows. Relationships are everything to me. I connect people to homes they love and to their communities. My clients? needs and best interests are at the heart of everything I do. I set a high bar and move mountains to exceed expectations."

According to Charlottesville real estate agent Toby Beavers, the median home value in Charlottesville, VA is $356,110 with the majority of them, 34.1%, being 3 bedroom homes. Next to that are 2 bedroom homes at 29.8%.
