Newly Published Advice On What To Do When Locked Out of Your Home

West London, UK ? Locked Out Locksmiths Of West London published an article providing help for homeowners locked out of their house. It can be a horrifying feeling. One is in a hurry, running out the door to the airport or some other important appointment when it happens. The door to the house shuts and in an instant the realisation sets in that the keys are on the opposite side and a lockout has occurred. Panic ensues. In order to help London residents out with this, Lockedout LockSmiths (www.lockedout-locksmiths.co.uk) has just published a new blog post authored by Brendan Connolly entitled 'Four Qualities that Set Us Apart from Other London Locksmith Services'.

The article discusses their premium lock out services and what sets them apart specifically from other locksmiths.

?In the direst circumstances?such as being locked out of your home or flat, for instance,? states Connolly, ?you?d be glad to know that we can be there for you 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Just give us a call, and you can expect us to arrive within 30 minutes to fix your lockout problem.?

Connolly's advice is derived directly from experienced professionals at Locked-Out Locksmiths, which specialises in both residential and business security. The article explains that the idea of a residential lock and security is to keep potential criminals out, not the homeowner. The article further discusses the added peace of mind, how all Locked-Out Locksmiths employees undergo thorough background checks and are required to wear uniforms as well as carry identification cards while on the job, and their policy of no call-out charges.

?There?s nothing worse than discovering you?ve locked your entire family out of the house, other than doing it on a Sunday,? stated recent and satisfied customer Jo Wiltshire. ?I rang a local locksmith in Ealing and thankfully got Brendan from Locked Out Locksmiths. Not only was he willing to collect me on route to the house from the park, but he completely went the extra mile and dropped me back to the park once the job was done. Brendan was not only utterly professional, he was quick, efficient and got me in to the house, replaced the lock without damaging the door, and left 2 spare keys in under 15 minutes. Considering what he could have charged for a Sunday call out, he was amazingly reasonable.?
