October 27, 2020 -
LowCountry Home Magazine, a leading Media Company in Bluffton, SC, features another award-winning community in Bluffton, South Carolina.

In its latest article, the magazine features the unique and innovative program of Belfair. Belfair is a vibrant community in Hilton Head, SC. The award-winning community in Bluffton, SC is introducing its Lot to Rooftop Program. ?This innovative approach grants new members the opportunity to defer the community initiation fee and up to two years of membership dues during the construction of their home,? as stated in the article.

Through the program, Belfair has partnered with select builders, including Full Circle Development and Shoreline Construction. They state that ?Belfair?s management team has extensively vetted these builders to ensure a first-class building experience from companies with proven financial security and superior local reputations.? While the builders expect to have model homes available for public tour in spring next year, pre-sale opportunities are already available.

Meanwhile, the feature published by the Modern Home Magazine in Bluffton, SC also gave readers a glimpse of the Belfair community. The neighborhood is located close to the estuary of the Colleton River in the Atlantic Ocean and part of the Savannah drainage basin.

The article says that the community attracts those with an active lifestyle. The community also has the newly renovated member facilities like the 1811 Grille and the 21,000 sq ft Sports & Lifestyle Campus. The campus has an expanded indoor pool, a 50% increase in the size of the fitness center, new children?s splash pad, and a social hall with casual dining.
