

Water Heater Repair Company in London, ON Advises Their Community to Check Their Furnaces Before Winter Hits

October 28, 2020

October 28, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

London, ON ? As a local and water heater repair company in London, ON, Triton Plumbing + Services understands what to expect of their community's winter season, as well as common issues that commonly arise during this time of the year. To assist their community, Triton Plumbing + Services is advising households to check their furnaces now and get them repaired as needed before the winter season is in full swing.

As in many areas around the world, the colder weather brings a unique set of challenges to homeowners. Underperforming or broken furnaces being among the top complaints. Right now, it is the perfect time for households to service their furnaces, ensure they are working properly, and take the necessary precautions to prevent a future breakdown. Homeowners are advised to check that the pipes, venting, flame detection, and safety switches are all working properly. If there are any suspicious observations, it is important to get the furnace looked at by a professional, such as Triton Plumbing + Services, so that they can repair or replace the furnace as necessary.

As a 24-hour plumber in London, ON, the technicians at Triton Plumbing + Services are fully equipped to handle repairs on numerous systems but also offer their community HVAC installation and service. These services include electric furnaces, boilers, ductless heat pumps, or natural gas units on top of their plumbing services. In addition, the team at Triton offers reoccurring annual maintenance for homes to inspect furnaces top to bottom, saving homeowners time and money.

Since their founding, Triton Plumbing + Service has made it their mission to be a different kind of plumbing company. They strive the break away from the stereotypical mold of plumbers and instead hold punctuality, pristineness, politeness, and professionalism at the highest standard. For the most pleasant and reliable plumbing services, give Triton Plumbing + Service a call today at (226) 270-6424 or visit their website at tritonservice.ca.
