November 03, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lincoln White Plains, an auto dealer based in White Plains, NY, has announced that they have simplified the process by which customers may be able to have their Lincoln car serviced. The car dealership has a Lincoln service center that allows customers to have peace of mind that they will continue to best out of their Lincoln for years to come. They encourage customers to visit their service center where they offer complimentary service inspection and report card detailing the things that need to be done for the Lincoln at the present time and in the future.

Andy Gorran, a spokesperson for Lincoln White Plains, says, "We're here to make sure you continue to get the best out of your Lincoln for years to come, so we encourage you to take advantage of our dealership. It makes keeping track of your Lincoln service and maintenance more convenient than ever. Stay up to date with a factory maintenance schedule, service history log, service coupons, interactive guides to your vehicle's features and more."

Customers can take advantage of the dealership's complimentary pick up and delivery service for the Lincoln. They can arrange for the dealership to pick up the Lincoln from their home or office. Customers will also be provided with a temporary vehicle that they can use while their Lincoln is being serviced. Next, they will service the car and perform a multi-point inspection to ensure that all potential issues with the car are covered. Lastly, they will deliver the serviced and washed Lincoln to the home of the customer, all ready to go.

For those who are wondering when they should get their Lincoln serviced, they are encouraged to contact the service center to ensure that they don't miss their chance of having their car checked for any potential problems. This will provide them with confidence that their Lincoln will continue to operate at its peak performance level.

A basic service provided is the Lincoln oil change service. It starts at $49.95 and after the oil change, customers will be able to drive their Lincoln with confidence that their car will be operating at maximum efficiency with the Genuine Lincoln Premium Oil change performed by the service center's certified Lincoln technicians. They would also like to recommend that customers only use the best premium oil that is supplied by their Lincoln dealer. This is because the Genuine Lincoln Premium Engine Oil has been engineered specifically for the unique specifications of the Lincoln engine. This ensures maximum engine performance, engine protection and fuel economy.

Meanwhile, Lincoln White Plains has been providing quality buying experience for Lincoln customers for several years. This is evidenced by the rave reviews they have been receiving from customers. For instance, Tyler R. had recently given the car dealership a five-star rating and said, "Michele Kenton was amazing. She got right down to the numbers and made me feel like a human being regardless of race social economic status. She was kind and went the extra mile along with the other staff. I look forward to coming back to get the Lincoln Aviator. If you need a car call her or come in and ask for her! She convinced me to convert from another Mercedes Benz to a Lincoln. I purchased a Corsair. Beautiful car!?"

Customers who are interested in learning more on how they can get their Lincoln serviced may also want to visit the website of Lincoln White Plains, or contact them on the phone or through email. Their White Plains service center is open from 7:30 am to 5:00 pm from Monday to Friday, and from 8:00 am to 2:00 pm on Saturdays.

Those who are interested about the quality of the service provided by the auto dealer may also want to check out the Lincoln White Plains reviews. So far, they have 262 reviews on Google, 26 reviews on DealerRater, and 305 reviews on cars.com, with an overall rating of close to 5.0.
