

Appreciation Note Lauds Piedmont Paint & Finish's Effort & Thoroughness

November 19, 2020

Charlottesville, VA - November 19, 2020 -
Piedmont Paint & Finish is proud to share an appreciation note received from Susan, yet another happy customer. The company shared the note on their Facebook page. It talked about how happy she was not only with the painting work that was done but even pointed out how thorough the crew was in other aspects of the job.

In that appreciation note, Susan says, ?Hi Shaun. We are very pleased with the job you, Ben and Francisco and the crew did for us - great painting and great clean up! Thanks so much! It is always a pleasure doing business with people who operate as professionals. We will not hesitate to recommend you all if asked for painting recommendations." There is also a section on their Facebook Page where customers have left reviews that talk about how the company is very ?detail-oriented? as they go about their work. An example of that is this review written by Patricia Zeller that states, ?Just had our house exterior painted. Piedmont's team was excellent from start to finish. Took great care in every detail, on time, and on budget. I am planning to have them do some interior work soon. Thanks guys!? Both the appreciation note and the review can be seen here at https://www.facebook.com/PiedmontPaint/posts/3555230014512231.

The company?s Facebook page is not the only place that one of this contractor?s customers mentions they were impressed with both the painting work that was done for them and the company?s overall thoroughness. In a review left on this Charlottesville, VA painting contractor?s Google Maps Listing, Kelly Weinersmith, writes, ?We had a really great experience with Piedmont Painting. Their customer service is excellent (they're quick to respond, clear about when they're coming out, etc), and the people there are wonderful. The crew that painted our house were on time, very friendly, hardworking, and thorough. I don't know a ton about house painting - but it seemed to us that we were charged a totally reasonable amount (we had expected to pay more!), and we're thrilled with how the house looks. We've been doing a lot of home repairs lately, and we wish all the crews who came through our house were as pleasant to work with and as careful as they go about their work as Piedmont Painting. We'll definitely hire them again the next time we have a painting job.? This 5-star review along with many others can be found here at https://goo.gl/maps/KKYyRni2V412.

The company owner, Charles Davis, says, ?We are always very happy when a customer thinks that the painting job that we did for them was worthy of taking a few minutes out of their busy day to thank us. There are many ways I can assess my company?s performance such as the bottom-line dollars that we make, but I feel the true measure of my company?s success is having many satisfied customers. That?s why we look so closely at such things as appreciation notes and reviews, so we can continue to emphasize what we are doing right and also learn what we can do better.?

Davis went on to add that they are a full-service painting contractor that serves such Greater Charlottesville, Virginia area communities as Ivy, Keswick, Nellysford, Wintergreen, and Stony Creek. They offer both commercial and residential painting services and this includes both interior and exterior painting. He says that one day they may be found painting the interior of a large retail space and the next they may be found painting a rural farmhouse. The company owner says that their painting services really are that versatile and comprehensive. Some of the specialty services that they perform include shutter, floor, and cabinet painting and refinishing. He says that they also offer painting support services such as pressure washing and roof & gutter cleaning.
