He did my breast lift/augmentation and tummy tuck back in 2005, and I called him a million times a day! I am just a cry baby, he was always kind and understanding. As I have aged, I have returned to him recently for some work on my face. I would not trust anyone else. The staff is informative, professional. Love my doctor!?"

Another patient, Alicia, explains, "Honestly, I've been meaning to leave this review for some time now. I got a breast reduction last August, and from my first visit to my last one, I have always enjoyed going to Dr. Morales's office. His staff is absolutely wonderful. They are very helpful and nice. Dr. Morales made this entire process so smooth. This was first surgery ever, and he explained everything in great detail. I felt very confident with his experience and love my results. I can't say thank you enough!?"
