

Awards Store in Norfolk, VA Discusses the Future of Award Ceremonies

November 12, 2020

November 12, 2020 -

Norfolk, VA ? The changes brought about by COVID-19 has affected many businesses and events, including the end of the year or seasonal ceremonies. G&W Gifts and Awards by Allogram South is encouraging teams and companies to host their awards ceremonies a bit differently this year. The awards store in Norfolk, VA is promoting a safe way for these events to occur while making the safety of all attendees a top priority. Rather than promoting traditional, in-person awards ceremonies, G&W Awards is providing helpful tips and insight for successful virtual awards ceremonies.

With a broad range of custom awards in their online catalog, G&W Awards offers products to fit any event. With another location in the Timonium and Odenton areas, they are able to move products between warehouses and widen their service area to reach more customers. While a virtual event may seem daunting, the team at G&W Awards are experts in what they do. G&W Awards can work with businesses and event planners to determine the best awards for the online event and ensure that they are delivered on time in pristine condition.

Because COVID-19 has been difficult for both businesses and individuals, it is important to maintain a sense of normalcy, including proceeding with yearly and seasonal events. Moving ceremonies to virtual events are a great way to continue traditions safely while keeping moral and spirits high.
