Arizona Based Law Firm Robert A. Dodell Offering Discount For Veterans

July 31, 2023

July 31, 2023 -
Robert A. Dodell, Attorney At Law has announced that the law firm is again offering discounts on its legal services for its customers who are veterans. Robert. A Dodell serves Scottsdale, Tempe, Mesa, Chandler, Gilbert, and Phoenix clients for criminal, DUI, juvenile, and adoption legal services.

The law firm has been practicing criminal and DUI law for over 30 years and has handled 1000's of cases. According to the firm, the amount of experience that a lawyer has in their field matters. The firm says that its primary concern is servicing clients and making sure they get the best legal representation possible. Robert Dodell handles all his own cases, which provides the personal touch that a client needs. The firm believes that qualified and experienced legal counsel should be affordable to each client needing legal representation. They say that they can provide clients with some of the most competitive rates available without sacrificing legal quality.

Robert prides himself on his ability to have personal and direct contact with each and every one of his clients. Robert claims that he is involved in the client?s entire case and committed to their freedom. He wants his clients to stay out of jail and be at home with their families. All of his clients receive the personal touch of actually working with him on their case. He answers his own telephone which the firm believes is a sign of integrity and dedication. They go on to say that a direct line of communication is of utmost importance in providing proper legal services aimed at achieving long term trust and satisfaction.

The law firm provides flexible payment plans. They say in order to assist their clients, they provide not only payment plan options, but also provide affordable rates prior to signing any legal documentation. The law firm says its team is dedicated to providing clients the best legal defense possible by helping them with the financial obligations.

When talking about the necessity of a lawyer in criminal or DUI cases, they start by saying that being convicted of a crime, even if it is a misdemeanor, could result in penalties such as jail time, loss of license, probation, community service, hefty fines, loss of civil rights and loss of the right to have a weapon. They say when someone hires a criminal attorney to represent them in court, they have the best possible chance of avoiding or mitigating these penalties. Having a conviction on someone?s record could permanently ruin their chances of employment, affect their housing and their future.

Robert Dodell says that as a former prosecutor, he knows and understands their process and how they approach a case. The law firm will help the client understand what the prosecution will do and what they might present in court against them. The firm will guide clients and help them understand the potential outcomes of the charges and accusations they face. The firm believes that they can help clients build a strategic defense and represent the client as best as possible.

When asked about his work methodology, Robert A. Dodell says, ?You want an attorney that has the knowledge and experience to assist you and you want your attorney to help guide you through these most difficult times. I am that experienced attorney who has been practicing law for over 30 years. I will work for you and work to protect your rights and advise you during this difficult time. In Arizona courts he represent clients in the areas of Criminal Defense, DUI, Domestic Violence, Juvenile Defense, Juvenile Dependencies, and Adoption.?

The firm can be reached at the phone number (480) 860-4321 where they can expect to talk to Robert A. Dodell directly. There is also a contact form on the website where interested clients can send them a message. The firm?s office is located at 10601 N Hayden Rd, #I-103 Scottsdale, Arizona 85260.
