November 18, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

No Payne Roofing, based in Calgary, AB, is extremely pleased to share a new 5-star review they received from a customer they worked with on a recent roofing project. Like many other reviews left online regarding the company's activities, the review recommends No Payne Roofing for their responsiveness, accessibility, professional conduct, and overall high quality of service.

In the review, Bob McDonald explains the initial issue they encountered with their roof and then with finding a company that could help, noting that No Payne Roofing was not the first contractor they tried to reach. The review says, "I called to repair an issue with a few shingles that had blown off. I tried to connect with two companies I knew of but they could not respond for at least two weeks. When I reached Mike, he said they could get their repair guy out today. The cost was reasonable. Nolan arrived on time, was very professional, and got right to work. When he finished, he explained what he had done. He was efficient and tidy. I highly recommend No Payne Roofing, Inc. Great service, no issues."

Homeowners who are unfamiliar with No Payne Roofing are encouraged to call and request a free estimate for their roofing project. The company aims to maintain its widespread reputation for being the best Calgary roofing provider, and this is why they pair professional roofing expertise with affordable services. Customers will be pleased to learn that the company offers a comprehensive range of roofing services, which makes No Payne Roofing the community's one-stop solution for any and all roofing needs.

In addition to the general roofing services a customer may expect, the contractor provides gutter cleaning, chimney repair, siding repair, skylight installation, and so on. However, the team at No Payne Roofing firmly believes that these services would be incomplete without a fundamental commitment to maintaining a high standard of customer service at every stage of the process. In practice, this means homeowners can expect the company to be transparent with all fees as well as share updates at every point of any project.

No Payne Roofing's contractors each boast a great deal of expertise and experience, both of which will quickly become evident when homeowners engage their assistance. In addition to this, the company understands that homeowners rarely want to undergo the hassle of having their roof redone (or undertake any other extended service), especially since this means several strangers will need to occupy the property for some time until the project is complete. This in turn means that No Payne Roofing's contractors strive to take the stress out of any project while remaining respectful of their customer's property and privacy at all times. As they proudly state on their website, "From roof replacements to roof repairs in Calgary, we offer reliable, fast, and courteous services along with unmatched quality craftsmanship."

No Payne Roofing is also willing to help out their community with less obvious requests. With the holiday season fast approaching, the company points out that many homeowners will not want to put up their Christmas lights alone. Fortunately, No Payne Roofing is able to offer an excellent selection of Christmas light installation services where the company can obtain the lights, plan and execute creative designs, and even take power and safety concerns into account on their customer's behalf.
