November 24, 2020

Tempe, Arizona - November 24, 2020 -
Unity Spine & Joint Pain Clinic in Mesa, Arizona would like to announce that they offer chronic pain treatment to the local community. The clinic utilizes the latest technologies and a trusted team of doctors, physicians and chiropractors to help their patients manage their pain. They also offer a free consultation for new patients.

If one is looking for relief from chronic pain in the Mesa region, Unity Spine and Joint offers a wide range of pain management options. The compassionate physicians at this clinic can provide healthy and responsible pain management for a variety of causes. The clinic offers natural, non-surgical treatment and therapy options that serve to reduce or even completely eliminate pain and other symptoms by dealing with any underlying conditions.

The pain clinic?s team makes it their mission to uncover the root cause of an individual?s pain with diagnostic testing and will utilize medical procedures, chiropractic therapy, physical exercise modalities and more cutting-edge treatments to relieve pain and help the patient live a happier and pain-free life. The first step is to discover what the underlying cause for the chronic pain is. This can be accomplished at any of the clinic?s locations in Mesa, Avondale or Phoenix. Learn more here: Pain Treatment Center In Avondale.

Before a person?s neck, back, arm or leg pain can be properly treated, it must be understood whether this pain has been caused by an underlying condition or an injury, such as a car accident. The next step is to determine if it has directly caused the consistent, severe pain and other symptoms. Unity Spine & Joint offers proper diagnostic testing to help find the root of an individual?s pain, including checking for muscle and joint pain in the back, neck, hip, knee and other common areas. The clinic also checks for all manner of causes, such as chronic illnesses. Once admitted, patients are assessed for conditions that include Osteoarthritis, Fibromyalgia, Sciatic, Neuropathy and so on. Once the underlying cause is discovered, the pain clinic creates a natural treatment plan specifically tailored to the patient?s needs.

Unity Spine & Joint offers non-surgical pain management treatments for the aforementioned areas. In particular, they avoid simply offering a quick fix or pharmacological intervention to treat chronic pain. The team of professionals at Unity Spine & Joint are committed to finding natural treatments and therapies that will truly relieve chronic pain and heal one?s body ? so that one may get back to their daily routine and to the activities they enjoy. Some of the advanced treatments available include Trigger point injections, Chiropractic therapy, Physical medicine modalities and Epidurals. The clinic also offers treatments that include Medial Branch Blocks, Low dose steroid injections, nerve blocks and much more. The physicians will determine the most suitable treatment plan based on the individual needs of the patient. Learn more here: Chiropractors In Phoenix.

One can also schedule a consultation at the pain clinic after an auto accident. If one has been in a collision on the road, it is important to schedule an appointment for pain management within a reasonable period. This is even more important if one is experiencing lingering neck or back pain. To quote the clinic?s website, ?If your spine is knocked out of its natural balance, you may experience muscle spasms, headaches, pain and other symptoms that could interfere with daily life. Unity Physician Services offers a variety of natural treatments to counteract the damage done by auto accidents.? Depending on the severity of the pain, the team at the Unity clinic will design a treatment plan to ensure a patient is pain-free within the shortest period of time possible.

In a 5-Star review on Yelp, Phill P. states that he has, ?Been going to this location for the past three months. Very satisfied with the staff and services. First time visitors get hydrotherapy/water massage, which is fantastic. Once you get the routine, every visit is quick. I like when businesses are respectful of your time, and this place gets you in and out and feeling better. Front office staff, back office staff and doctors all are great and attentive. I would recommend this spot.?
