

Rooter Hero Plumbing Announces Commercial Plumbing in Orange County, CA

September 16, 2015

September 16, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Rooter Hero Plumbing of Orange County, a plumbing company in Orange, CA, has announced details of its new commercial plumbing services division. Commercial plumbing services are available for both existing buildings and new construction properties. The services offered by this leading commercial plumbing company in Orange, CA, are extensive and cover all aspects of commercial and industrial plumbing.

"We encourage any commercial enterprise to contact us for an assessment and we will tell them how they can get the most out of their plumbing system," says Jessica Perrault from Rooter Hero Plumbing of Orange County. "Our top priority is to resolve any issues as quickly as possible, be that installation, repair, or replacement."

The commercial plumbing services offered by Rooter Hero Plumbing cover a wide range of issues. They include commercial plumbing repair and replacement, commercial water pipe repair, commercial drain cleaning and Scour Jet services, gas re-piping and gas repairs, commercial water heater repair and installation, and commercial drain and sewer repair. The company is committed toward offering a professional, high-quality service without any delays. They understand the importance of having well-functioning plumbing in any commercial building and are ready to take on any job.

The company carries a C-36 California Plumbing Contractors License. Through this license, they can offer all of their services, including 24-hour emergency service. Their response times are very short and they ensure that any customer always connects with a qualified plumber around the clock. Additionally, plumbers are dispatched using radios and cell phones and have fully stocked service vehicles. Whatever the plumbing emergency is, they can handle it.

"Whenever a customer phones us with a request for plumbing work, emergency or not, we make them our top priority," adds Jessica Perrault. "We know our business customers don't have the time in their schedules to wait all day for a plumber to arrive and experience costly downtime. Thanks to our 90-minute response guarantee, our clients always know exactly when their plumber will get to their building."
