

Local Bankruptcy Lawyers Highlight Their Television Show

November 23, 2020

November 23, 2020 -

Pensacola, Fla. - Lewis and Jurnovoy, local bankruptcy lawyers in Pensacola, FL, are pleased to announce their bi-weekly television program, with the next segment coming up on Tuesday, Dec. 1, 2020. The show is called ?Bankruptcy Hour? and it broadcasts at 7 p.m. central standard time (CST) every other Tuesday. As bankruptcy lawyers with over 25 years of experience, Lewis and Jurnovoy hope to use their television show to help people navigate their financial debt situations.

The purpose of "Bankruptcy Hour? is for Lewis and Jurnovoy to address the concerns of their viewers regarding personal bankruptcy. If a person wishes to send in a question, they can email BKHour@4-Debtor.com or call during the show. The phone number is displayed on the live program.

When a person is considering filing for bankruptcy, there are many factors to consider and many questions to ask before making a decision. Lewis and Jurnovoy are passionate about helping those in financial turmoil understand their options regarding bankruptcy. ?Bankruptcy Hour? is a great outlet for Lewis and Jurnovoy to accomplish this.

The station that airs ?Bankruptcy Hour? is called Blab TV. It is a local TV station that exists to provide a platform for local businesses and organizations to share their narrative. Without Blab TV, many of these businesses would not otherwise have this type of platform. Another goal of Blab TV is to inform the audience about the products and services available in the area.

In 1998, Martin Lewis and Steven Jurnovoy created the law firm of Lewis & Jurnovoy, helping individuals and sole proprietors file for chapter 13 and chapter 7 bankruptcy. The law firm serves clients in Crestview, Panama City, Pensacola, and Fort Walton Beach.
