

Simply Charmed Introduces Their Christmas-Themed Stocking Stuffers for Dog Lovers

December 02, 2020

December 02, 2020 -
Simply Charmed has just released a new set of Christmas magnetic dog charms just in time for holiday gifting. The company stated that these new stocking stuffers for dog lovers are a very thoughtful gift for all dog affcionados. This new wine glass charm collection features adorable pups adorned in fancy Christmas sweaters. Other decorative pieces in the collection include dog bones with bows, wrapped presents, and Christmas trees.

Megan Buller, the spokesperson for Simply Charmed, says, ?We love it when our customers give us input as to what types of wine glass charms that they would like to see us make. That is how our newest charms, our Christmas Dogs collection, came about. It was suggested by many of our customers that they would very much like to see dog-themed wine glass charms to use in conjunction with their holiday parties and as simple gifts. They are quickly becoming one of our holiday best sellers in just the short time they have been available.?

The company spokesperson says that these wine glass charms are very simple to place on any wine glass, coffee mug, or other types of beverage cups. They work by attaching through the glass with 2 strong magnets and the magnets are even powerful enough to work through thicker coffee mugs. That means a person can attach them to their coffee mug during breakfast, move it onto their water glass during the day, and then have it nicely decorate their evening glass of wine. She added that they don?t even look out of place when attached to a red solo cup. They can also be used on both stemmed and non-stemmed wine glasses. Buller added that there are many creative ways that their customers have come up with to use their decorative magnetic wine glass charms. This Christmas dog-themed wine glass charm set also cleans up easily and is simple to store until the next time they are ready to be used. She stated that the value of these charms as unique holiday hostess gifts simply cannot be overlooked either.?

This is by no means the company?s first foray into the sale of seasonal and regular wine glass magnetic charms either. They already have several of these collections that are selling quite well. This includes their Forest Animal Winter Wine Charms, Barnyard Friends - Farm Animal Wine Charms, Christmas Eve Wine Charms, and Birthday Party Wine Glass Charms collections. There have also been several press releases written on the company?s wine glass charms. This includes the latest one about how their new Tailgating Wine Charms have become such a big hit. Other unique wine glass charms that have been the featured subject of press releases include Turtle Wine Glass Charms and their specialty Valentine?s Day Wine Glass Charms that were just introduced.

Buller added, ?Our magnetic wine glass charms are a must-have for every person who likes to entertain. The charms add personality to a glass while at the same time keeping each drink unique. This is especially important during the current virus crisis that?s sweeping across the nation. Now, more than ever, it's important to have a way to mark a glass at a party to know whose glass is whose.? She also mentioned that for those that are not traveling for safety?s sake during this upcoming Christmas holiday, their Christmas magnetic dog charms make a great gift. That?s because when our wine glass magnets are sent to friends or family, it lets them know the sender is thinking about them each time they go to take a sip of their favorite holiday beverage.

The company stated that another reason their customers like shopping with them is because of their very flexible product guarantees. They call it their 'Love it or return it guarantee'. She says that makes it a comfortable low-risk purchase for those that prefer to do their shopping online. The company also does free domestic shipping on their products and has exclusive offers for those that belong to their VIP club.
