This is to announce to show organizers in Chicago and the public that the organization has commenced visitations to the various dance shows being organized by different dance crews and gyms all across the city of Chicago. The visitations became essential given the call for conduct credible reviews of dance shows in the area and subsequently dispensed these reviews to the public, so that the public, especially dance lovers, would be informed of the available dance shows, their venues, and the shows alluring features.

The first show that Chicago Dance Reviews visited was the ?PomSquad Fitness 2020 Workshops at Through the Body?, which was held on the 25th of October, from 12-1 CDT at Through the Body Dance and Fitness 1819 West Grand Ave, #201 Chicago, Illinois 60618. Described by the founders, Mattrick Swayze and the Jenarator, as ?unreasonably fun?, this show is filled with indescribable fun and cheeky dance moves that would have attendants dancing away all of their stress. The music at this show is also top-notch, as spectators are hit with the latest music and their favorite old tunes.

The second show is the ?HUNKS: The Show at Afterlife at Brauer House?. This show was held at 1000 N Rohlwing Rd, Lombard, Illinois 60148, on the 14th of November, from 9 to 11 pm, and is considered one of the greatest performances worldwide. This show is best for ladies in search of fun-filled ladies' night or bachelorette parties. From moms to daughters, no matter the age range, there is something for everyone at this show.

The third show on this review is the ?Bridge Dance Festival 2020?, which happened on the 13th November, from 7 to 8:30 pm at Links Hall 3111 N. Western Ave. Chicago, Illinois 60618. This show tilts toward Asian dance presentations in a form of continuous flux that challenges conventional gender identities. This is predominantly for art lovers.

The fourth show is called, ?Maks and Val?, and will happen on the 20th June 2021 by 8 pm at 5400 North River Rd, Rosemont, Illinois, 60018. Star from the popular ABC show, Dancing with the Stars will recreate their very iconic dance moves as done in the movies. This show is a combination of great costumes and perfect storytelling that would make you want more.

HUNKS The Show is billed to occur on 29th January 2021, from 8 pm to 10 pm CST at Petergof Nightclub 577 Waukegan Rd. Northbrook, Illinois 60062. Doors open at 7 pm for party rockers that are 18 and above, with very limited VIP seats starting at $39.95. Therefore, if the party rocker?s desire is to not miss an incredible party, then the Hunk Show is the they party they do not want to miss.
