November 30, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

November 2020, Bluffton, SC - Premier Home Builders Publication LowCountry Home Magazine highlights the winners of the coveted 2020 LightHouse Awards in its recent blog post. The coveted LightHouse Awards is presented annually by the Hilton Head Area Home Builders Association (HHAHBA) and sponsored by BB&T Home Mortgage, according to the media company.

HHAHBA is a non-profit professional trade association of business professionals representing, promoting, and supporting excellence in the home building industry through education, community service, and environmental stewardship in SC. The organization comprises about 500 member companies, representing residential and light commercial builders, subcontractors, suppliers, and many other service professionals to the building industry throughout Beaufort, Jasper, and Hampton Counties.

This year's coveted LightHouse Awards recognized different builders, including remodelers and light commercial building companies, in various categories. Among this year's awardees are the following:

LowCountry Home Magazine's owner Dan Monroe is the chairman of the LightHouse Awards program. "For many of these builders, after spending 12 to 15 months or longer working on a project, where even the smallest detail could impact the overall outcome, the LightHouse Awards symbolize one of the highest career honors and is a true testament to their vision and talent," stated Dan Monroe.

The awarding ceremony was held early this month during the 21st Annual LightHouse Awards Gala at Sonesta Resort, Hilton Head Island, SC.

Meanwhile, LowCountry Home Magazine, the official publication of HHAHBA has been in the business for more than 25 years now. With the slogan "Better Southern Building," Lowcountry Home Magazine reaches various communities throughout SC. The publication aims to continue promoting a better life for the community by being a primary source of information in the area.
