September 14, 2015

September 14, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Los Gatos, CA business Lodestone Consulting Services LLC, have revealed their favorites for this year's Halloween costumes. The pirate costume has always been a firm favorite, with the maternity pirate costume that can be seen at <http://bestmaternitycostumes.com/pirate-queen-maternity-costume/> having been a favorite of many. However, a strong focus is now on Minions, as well as Star Wars. These costumes are suitable for all types of women, including pregnant women.

Lara Fabans from Lodestone Consulting Services says: "We love to see how interests in costumes change every year and we always try to figure out what is pushing those interests. The fact that the Minion costumes are really hot now is no surprise, considering the popularity of that movie. However, we hadn't expected Star Wars to be so much in demand, as that movie hasn't even been released yet!"

For Lodestone Consulting Services, however, the emphasis is not just on finding out which costumes are the most popular. Rather, they want to make sure that everybody is able to have a good time during Halloween. For pregnant women, getting dressed up is often a no-go area, because there simply aren't any costumes designed with pregnant women in mind. This is why they want to draw particular attention to the best maternity costumes that are available.

The have listed a number of costumes that are particularly suitable for pregnant women, including those who are heavily pregnant. As can be seen on <http://bestmaternitycostumes.com/>, these costumes include pirate, angel, devil and fairy costumes. That is because these types of costumes can hide a large pregnant belly. On the other hand, Lodestone Consulting Services does not feel a pregnant woman should hide her belly. Rather, they feel that if a woman feels more comfortable covered up, they have the opportunity to do so.

"We believe a pregnant belly is one of the ultimate beautiful miracles," adds Lara Fabans. "In fact, we have seen stunning examples of expectant mothers having body art created on their belly that matches the face paint of their other children, for instance. Doing that is a great opportunity to follow fashion, as well as opting for Minions or Star Wars designs."
