December 14, 2020 -

Community bloggers in Plano, TX are talking about the findings of a study conducted by move.org, which assigns apartments in the region a rating based on size and affordability. Notably, the study ranked apartments in the area in first place.

Bloggers are acknowledging that, if one is looking to settle in Plano, there is good news in store for them: Plano apartments seem to be ranking well in affordability, according to the Dallas Morning News on the 23rd of November, 2020. According to the news source, it was deemed that, "Plano is one of the most affordable large cities in the nation for renters, according to a study by Move.org, a website that evaluates moving services and offers recommendations. Plano came in at number 15 with an average monthly living cost of $1,752.63 for someone with a one-bedroom apartment. The calculation was made based on the anticipated costs of rent, utilities, gasoline and food."

Articles like the one linked to above also note that, apart from good pricing, Plano apartments rank well in terms of living space. To quote the news source, "A new study by ApartmentGuide.com ranked Plano as the city with the largest apartments in the country. To come up with its rankings, the report from the apartment listings website analyzed the sizes of ?all available studio, one-bedroom and two-bedroom apartments? in the 100 biggest cities in the country.? Whether a person is a long-time Plano resident looking for an apartment or someone looking to relocate to Plano, apartments in the area will most often match their size and price range.

The above example post was published by Bobby Jivnani Plano Dental, which is run by Dr. Jivnani, a native of Plano. He attended Plano High School before going on to graduate from the University of Dallas with a Bachelor of Science in biology and a Bachelor of Arts in economics. He continued his education at the Baylor College of Dentistry and graduated with a Doctorate of Dental Surgery. He decided to practice in his hometown and acquired his practice from a former professor who had served the community for over 30 years. He has since built an exclusive family and cosmetic dental practice in Plano. When he is not making every effort to maintain the dental health of his patients, the practice states that he likes to get involved in community efforts that improve the lives of local residents.

Dr. Jivnani is also an active member of the American Dental Association, Texas Dental Association and Dallas County Dental Society. He undertakes many hours of continued education in order to ensure that he is up-to-date with all the latest advancements in dentistry so he can provide his patients with the very best dental care. He is also a volunteer at the dental society and participates in dental missions around the world.

To quote a statement made by the clinic, ?Our practice philosophy is to provide excellent dental care through conservative procedures to restore our patients? confidence and smile. Bobby Jivnani Plano Dental boasts many great reviews and has received a rating of 5 Stars on several platforms. One Google review by Narayansa Badi states, ?I had tooth trouble for the last one week. There was a sensation in the last tooth, right side top. I went at 8 am today and finished the paperwork in five minutes. I was taken to the dentist chair immediately. After preliminary checking and X-rays, Doctor Bobby entered. He examined and discussed the problem area, solutions and time frame details. Job was completed in one and half hours. I am quite happy. No problem now. The ambiance of the dental clinic is excellent. Service is top quality. Dr. Bobby Jivnani?s services are awesome.? This is only one of many 5-Star rated reviews.
