Dr. Morales received his medical degree with honors from the University of South Florida College of Medicine before proceeding to complete his general and plastic surgery residencies at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC). He then returned to Florida to become vice chief of surgery at Memorial Hospital West and to begin his own private practice. Dr. Morales obtained his General Surgery Board Certification as well as his Plastic Surgery Board Certification. He continues to maintain his Plastic Surgery Board Certification.

The website claims that Dr. Ramiro Morales has demonstrated expertise and dedication throughout his career. It says that he is one of the few plastic surgeons in the Miami area who possesses high-level qualifications and experience in the field of surgery, a field that attracts only a few individuals. It says that Dr. Morales's contributions to the medical community are varied and diverse, demonstrating his dedication to improving both the health and the beauty of his patients. He has contributed his expertise to topics such as Clinical Research in Abdominal Wall Reconstruction, Research in Mandibular Distraction Osteogenesis, Research in Enhanced Nerve Regeneration After Trauma, Clinical Study of Cryptosporidium, and Research in Group B. Streptococcal Infections in the Surgical and Obstetrical Patient.

When asked about the philosophy behind his work, Dr. Morales says, "My focus is to make a difference in the lives of their patients. I prefer the consultative approach to allow my patients to be part of the surgical process and to enable them to make decisions based on both personal and professional guidance. I prefer providing holistic services in the varying surgical disciplines which is why I insist on working with a surgical team that is knowledgeable and dedicated in its service. I take a keen interest in the well-being of my patients with an understanding that a friendly and comfortable environment is a recipe for successful procedures and faster healing. I aim to become the best option for anyone searching online for "The Plastic Surgeon Miami".

An anonymous review on Rate MD says, "After consulting with several local surgeons in my area and a few others in Miami, I was not feeling it at all. A friend of mine recommended Dr. Morales, who had recently done her tummy tuck (and WOW she looks amazing). Dr. Morales took the time to listen to what I wanted to achieve with surgery and did not try and push the "norm" on me as many other surgeons were doing. If you are looking for an excellent surgeon who will listen to you and be candid and honest Dr. Morales is your man. My surgery was a piece of cake and follow up care was wonderful. I am more than pleased with the results of my breast lift and implants. I cannot say enough good things about Dr. Morales and his staff."

A review by Josmir on Health Grades says, "Dr. Morales and staff are the A1 TEAM. Honestly, they are exceptional, since day one I crossed to his office everything was so smooth, which is exactly what you want for that important surgery in your life. In my case, was a breast augmentation and I felt I waited my entire life for this, for many many years I couldn't feel secure and comfortable to do. Doctor Morales and the staff made me feel I was in the right place. Thais was always very patient over the phone, as at the beginning I had to change my appointment due to work. So on my 1st appointment I knew he was the right person, he took his time, he asked what size I wanted, and worked with me on what was actually possible. He showed me the implants and did a test to my size...for me that was SO important, crucial even he put attention on the discrepancy of the size of my natural breasts and worked on that (so clever, or more than that). Sylvia worked very well with me on the surgery schedule and she helped perfectly with that."
