December 14, 2020 -
Houston, Texas ? As part of the efforts to continue to serve the top-notch appraisal of dance-related events across the city, the Houston Dancer Reviews turns attention to the HACP Virtual Premiere of Christopher Thomas.

On November 19th, 2020, Christopher Thomas treated the Houston community to a remarkable evening of splendor, showmanship, moves, and unbridled entertainment. The performance, which was hosted on the SPA Digital Virtual Performance commenced by 7 PM, had enthusiasts savoring and moving their bodies. It was the dance lovers' haven. The event was preceded by an engaging and insightful chat session under the Westwood Trust Creative between Christopher Thomas and Claire Williamson, SPA?s Director of Education & Community Engagement on November 16, 2020.

Christopher had focused on college and sports while growing up, but staying true to his mantra, ?God gave you a talent. Use it. That is your gift to the world,? he returned to dance, his true love, and has morphed into a critically acclaimed choreographer, performer, teacher, and competitor.

Christopher has performed alongside Steven Tyler, Keith Urban, Sugar Ray, Life House, Natasha Bedingfield, 69 Boyz, Flo Rida, Kendrick Lamar, Erykah Badu, etc., and has trained dancers that have worked with Sam Smith, Taylor Swift, and Beyoncé, amongst others.

One of Christopher?s recent work is a collaboration with videographer Joel Martinez.

Christopher currently operates a dance company in Houston known as Sonkiss?d Dance Theater, following his return from international tutoring in 2010.

Sonkiss?d Dance Theater trains dancers into highly skilled professionals and avails them opportunities to attain the top cadre in the dancing industry.
