LowCountry Home Magazine Features Festival of Trees in Habersham

December 15, 2020

December 15, 2020 -
December 2020, Bluffton, SC - LowCountry Home Magazine, Magazine Publisher in Bluffton SC, highlights the start of the annual Festival of Trees happening in the coastal town of Habersham in Beaufort, South Carolina, this holiday.

The Festival of Trees in Habersham features 30 live Christmas trees decorated and placed throughout the Southern Living inspired community. The Christmas tree display started last December 2 and will last until the end of the month. The lights are open daily until 9 PM.

Spectators can witness it for free and can be seen through self-guided tours, walking, or driving in the area. Maps are available for pickup at the Habersham Marketplace. The Marketplace is a mixed-use commercial center of Habersham that combines urban loft apartments with commercial spaces on the ground floor. For those who prefer to do driving tours, driving maps are available online at fochospice.org/festival-of-trees.

Meanwhile, guests are encouraged to donate online for FRIENDS of Caroline Hospice to support this vital and local non-profit. Visitors can make their donation in one of the booths at Habersham Marketplace.

Meanwhile, Habersham?s 33rd Annual Festival of Trees event also coincides with the 2020 Southern Living Showcase Home Tours. Tickets for tours are available for purchase online. A portion of all ticket sales will again go to FRIENDS of Caroline Hospice.
