Petrelli Previtera, LLC, a top-rated family law firm with offices across the country, is pleased to announce the opening of a new location in Seattle, Washington. This is Petrelli Previtera's first office in the Northwest, which is now open for virtual appointments via petrellilaw.com or by phone at (206) 231-5789.

"Opening the Seattle office furthers our firm's mission to best serve our clients who face divorce and other family law matters," said firm partner Thomas J. Petrelli, Jr. "Our entire team at Petrelli Previtera is passionate in our commitment to our clients, and we look forward to offering top-notch legal representation in the Seattle community."

The lawyers at Petrelli Previtera have guided hundreds of clients through divorce, and they wholly understand the level of stress and uncertainty that can arise during this challenging time. The firm helps clients face their challenges and ensures they receive an equitable distribution of assets and appropriate spousal and child support. "We take the uniqueness of every case very seriously," Petrelli said. "No matter the level of contention in a given case, there are always a variety of short- and long-term issues that spouses must address. There are usually questions about child custody, moving out, spousal support, child support, asset division, and more. We are here to help individuals resolve these matters so they can reach agreements as efficiently and successfully as possible." Petrelli Previtera also offers legal representation in other areas of family law, such as adoption, legal separation, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, and more.

The divorce lawyers at Petrelli Previtera are available for same-day initial consultations. Anyone can schedule an appointment through the firm's online system or by contacting the Seattle office directly at (206) 231-5789. During this initial meeting, a variety of important issues will be discussed, including the division of property, custody and parental rights if applicable, the protection of assets, and spousal support. The lawyers at Petrelli Previtera always ensure that property is divided fairly and that all income is disclosed and indicated in the spousal and child support agreements. They guide each client in every step of divorce, making the process as simple as possible.
