Suwanee, Ga. ? Frequently, what makes the holidays such a special time are not common customs, but rather traditions that are special to specific households or groups of good friends. Likewise, gifts, ornaments, decorations, and knick-knacks tend to hold a more significant meaning for an individual when they are personalized. As it comes time to the start of the holiday shopping season, Specialty Engraving is highlighting their line of custom ornaments offered in their shop.

Specialty Engraving provides full-color clear acrylic ornaments in red, green, blue, or yellow. These ornaments can be bought with a pre-planned design, or Specialty Engraving can customize the design with a selected logo design, phrase, or image. There are a variety of different sizes for custom ornaments readily available including two by three-inch crystal ovals, three by two-inch glass hexagons, or any custom holiday design such as a snowflake.

Another type of customer holiday gift that Specialty Engraving offers is the new Polar Camel vacuum insulated mug. These custom mugs are provided in 16 different color choices, such as a Christmas red, coral, teal, and more. The mugs can be customized on both sides with any design. These kinds of gifts are excellent for family members, companions, managers, or colleagues who are often difficult to buy for. They look excellent on a display in any environment, and since they are personalized, the recipient is sure to feel special.
