According to CTX Dumpsters? founder and CEO, Mr. Jeremy Thrailkill, the company was founded in Austin and is entirely locally operated. ?The team at CTX Dumpsters is proud to say that we are a self-made company that's locally owned and operated. You can count on us to provide you with a superior dumpster rental service, on-time, and ready to get to work managing your waste for you.? He also also mentions that while the company provides exceptional services to its customers; they were also constantly seeking for ways to improve their services; ending with a call for the company?s customers to reach out with feedback, questions and suggestions. ?Our team welcomes you to reach out to us at any time with any questions, comments, or concerns. We're here to serve you when you need us!? says Jeremy Tharilkill.

The company seems to care about customer services and even goes further to encourage customers who have rented their dumpsters from CTX Dumpsters to reach out with feedback that it will use to improve the services the company offers.

CTX Company website states that they provide low-cost dumpster rentals in Austin to customers looking for construction and residential waste removal dumpsters. The company says that their dumpsters are clean and well maintained and that they can be used for removal of all types of roofing shingles as well as metals and slate. They also accept heavy construction debris that may include concrete, asphalt and dirt. According to the company, residential customers are also catered for and their dumpster rentals can handle most types of household waste and junk.

On a page listing the type of junk they accept; the company lists mattress disposal, E-waste disposal and recycling services, refrigerators and appliances removal, yard waste removal, disposal of Hot tubs and furniture removal as items allowable in their dumpsters. They also mention that they provide foreclosure and eviction cleanout services for real estate companies and realtors seeking a dumpster rental in Austin that provides waste and junk removal services.

According to this customer review, CTX Dumpsters appears to provide reliable services to its customers. ?Book a dumpster rental from them online around 9 pm and requested my delivery the next day and they called me the very next morning first thing and it was here by noon the same day. The dumpster looked exactly like it did in the pictures. Super easy to deal with and I like easy,? says Ricky V.

The company?s rating online has been listed in the Better Business Bureau with an A+ rating. It has also been rated highly on Yelp, Google and Facebook with 5 Stars on each platform.

The dumpster rental compnay is based in Austin, TX but delivers its dumpsters to other cities in Central Texas, as mentioned above. Those interested may want to check out their dumpster rental options, their pricing and their rental terms on their website if one has a roofing job, a contraction job or a residential project that may necessitate removal of a lot of waste or junk. Those who are interested in their services or would like to learn more about the dumpster rental options they offer in Texas or the surrounding cities, contact CTX Dumpsters by either phone or the compnay website.
