Dallas Bloggers Celebrate Asian Women Making A Mark Locally

January 07, 2021 -
Amidst nearly constant negative news on the national front, community bloggers in Dallas are talking about a more possitive topic - the accolades and recognition that Asian American women are garnering for their contributions in the comunity.

For example, in a recent post by a Dallas blogger on a local law firm's site, mention was made of Julie Wang Zheng. Julie Wang Zheng was recently featured on Tatler Hong Kong?s article (published on December 11th), which featured a list of trailblazing Asian women. She was included for her impressive feat of circumnavigating the globe, a journey which she began in Dallas.

The article reads, ?In 2016, pilot and flight instructor Julie Wang Zheng joined an elite club when she became the first Asian woman to circumnavigate the Earth in an airplane, and the first Chinese person to fly solo around the world. Wang took 33 days and 155 hours of flying a single-engine propeller plane to complete her journey where she started, in the Dallas area of Texas.?

The comunity blog mentioned above also notes another Asian woman in their post, Susan Do Zuniga, a Dallas mom who wrote, illustrated and self-published an adorable children?s book to teach her sons and other similar children of their Vietnamense heritage. An article published by NBC 5 DFW reads, ??The Pho Team? is a book written, illustrated and self-published by a woman in Dallas. It?s about a boy who finds himself hungry for the Vietnamese food pho and meets some friends along the way. ?I have two little boys. One is 11 months old, and the other is 3 years old. And I married a Honduran man, so our family is a big mix, hodgepodge of different cultures,? said Susan Do Zuniga, a lawyer, wife and mom who wrote the book to connect her sons to their Vietnamese culture.?

James, a spokesperson for maedgenaccidentattorneys.com, says, ?We have always taken pride in Dallas being diverse place for people of all cultures and backgrounds, and the fact that Dallas is becoming the place of origin for trailblazing Asian women in a wide variety of industries is truly amazing. What both Julie Wang Zheng and Susan Do Zuniga have done are remarkable achievements, and we believe that every Dallas resident should be as proud of them as we are.?

The services offered by Ward Maedgen Accident Attorneys have allowed them to set themselves apart from the rest of the legal crowd in Dallas and earn a strong reputation. On their Google platform, the law firm has a rating of 4.6 out of 5 Stars. Jamie Cruz says in their review, ?I was referred to Ward after having issues with a previous attorney for a car accident, and I'm glad I did because I love Ward. He's very personal, professional and takes his time to gather all the information for your case. He even takes the time to explain to you thoroughly any questions you may have regarding your case, and is very open and honest about the outcomes of it. One of the best lawyers I've been in contact with. Thank you!?

In another review, Alexis Cavanaugh writes, ?I heard of Ward Maedgen being a good personal injury lawyer. When Jay needed one, I didn't hesitate to recommend Ward! He was unsure at first, saying it will only make the matter worse and will probably take so much of his time. But, after exchanging thoughts about the advantages and disadvantages of getting Ward's service, he gave it a shot! Jay couldn't appreciate my insistence more as it only took him two weeks, and he got the settlement he deserved. He didn't experience any hassle at all, in fact, Ward made sure that everything was taken care of accordingly! So to anyone who's having second thoughts on getting a personal injury lawyer, give it a try! I'd say, give Ward Maedgen a try!?
