Clean Group Brisbane (https://g.page/office-cleaning-brisbane?share), a professional cleaning company based in Australia, now offers a wide range of commercial cleaning & office cleaning services in Brisbane and surrounding suburbs. Local businesses in Brisbane and nearby Suburbs can now avail the services of Clean Group at great introductory prices. Also, the company is offering free first COVID-19 Disinfection and Protection Shield Cleaning to its new routine cleaning clients in Brisbane. The company provides commercial cleaning services to all types of business properties & establishments, including offices, malls, schools, hospitals, strata, gyms, childcare centres, and more in major cities of Australia.

Businesses in Brisbane often require the services of a professional cleaner when they need to perform a high-level or thorough cleaning of their premises either for an event or for any other purpose. Even for regular cleaning & maintenance of offices, commercial cleaners are hired throughout the city and Brisbane suburbs. Clean Group can cater to all kinds of routine and occasional cleaning needs of all businesses in and around Brisbane. The company has an in-house team of experienced & trained cleaners who can be hired on an hourly or project basis based on the cleaning needs of a business.

?We are now fully operational in Brisbane and taking requests for all kinds of commercial cleaning projects from a variety of businesses like offices, gyms, and care centres. If you have a commercial property that needs to be cleaned thoroughly, call us today. We provide a range of Brisbane cleaning services, including after builders cleaning, NDIS cleaning, and same-day cleaning. Also, our cleaners are totally capable of offering bespoke cleaning solutions to meet your particular requirements. So, feel free to contact us for all your cleaning needs in Brisbane,? says Suji Siv, owner and CEO of Clean Group.

With 20+ years of commercial cleaning experience and a team of trained office cleaners, Clean Group is one of the reputable cleaning companies in Brisbane. They are trusted by hundreds of businesses for their daily/weekly as well as one-off cleaning needs. Whether it?s the cleaning of a department store or complete cleaning & maintenance of big strata buildings, Clean Group is always the first choice of Brisbane property owners.

One of the reasons why Clean Group is trusted by local business owners for safe & results-oriented cleaning of their premises is the company?s huge experience in the industry. Clean Group has been catering to the cleaning needs of physical properties in Australia for over 20 years now. That means the company has experience in cleaning all kinds of properties and also understands the cleaning requirements & expectations of property owners.

Also, Clean Group is one of the few commercial cleaning companies that has adopted the green cleaning strategy, where their cleaners only use safe & non-toxic cleaning solutions that are safe both for the environment and for people & pets. The use of such eco-friendly cleaning solutions & techniques by their cleaners ensures that the client gets superb cleaning results along with the assurance of safety. In fact, the company is so confident in their cleaning skills that it offers a 100% satisfaction guarantee with all its commercial cleaning projects. While many cleaning companies in Australia outsource third-party cleaners or use freelancer cleaners for their clients, Clean Group never uses any cleaner other than its own in-house team. The reason is that the company?s cleaners are trained in safe & effective cleaning practices and come from a professional cleaning background, something one cannot expect from just any, regular cleaner. Also, Clean Group cleaners are all certified professionals, insured and police-checked to work with children and hospitals.

Clean Group is also the first company in Brisbane to use the popular Electrostatic Sprayer Application Technology that uses Zoono-71 Surface Sanitiser and can kill up to 99.99% of germs, including the COVID-19 virus. It has been TGA-certified to provide complete virus protection for up to 30 days. For a limited period, the company is offering the first COVID-19 Disinfection and Protection Shield Cleaning service for free only to its new routine cleaning clients. To avail the service, one can contact the Clean Group team for details.
