More information about Goldstone Financial Group can also be found at the following link: <https://posts.gle/oyupN>.

Anthony Pellegrino has the honor of being ranked in the top 1 percent of safe money specialists in the nation and was named one of the top 10 advisors in America in 2013. He also was named a Five Star Wealth Manager in Chicago magazine twice, as voted by his clients and peers. His expertise in the field has led him to be featured in many publications and TV shows. Recently, he was featured in three Forbes articles.

A December 19th article on year end retirement planning moves features Pellegrino's advice on tax loss harvesting. The article quotes him saying that, "If there were ever a year to take advantage of tax loss harvesting, 2020 is that year. When you have a year with massive drops that we saw in February and March followed by a substantial recovery in that same year, the opportunity is created to sell your losing funds to create losses to help offset capital gains. There is still time in the 2020 tax year to take advantage prior to the end of the year, especially with the likely rising taxes coming in 2021 to offset rising debt."

He was also quoted in another article "For Small Business Owners Only: Advanced Retirement Plan Options" where he says, "If you are self-employed, talk with your accountant and analyze your business to determine the best option for your company and your situation."

Pellegrino also shares his advice elsewhere, such as in the latest Goldstone Financial Group post on The Effect of Debt on the Global Economy. In the post, he looks into the current status of the economy of the US as well as the entire world and shares his insights. Summarizing the current situation, he writes, "Wall Street analysts warn that it won't take much for the US, Europe and Japan economies to contract again in the next two quarters, despite the bounce back last summer. Overall, economists expect the global economy to shrink by 5% in 2020, in part due to the 20% reduction in world trade.?

Goldstone Financial Group has earned a great deal of fame and is highly popular among their clients. On the Google platform, the firm has a rating of 4.7 out of 5 Stars. In their review, Joann S. praises Anthony Pellegrino personally, saying, "Anthony is very talented! We are clients of Anthony for over 7 years and are thankful we found him! Our kids are now invested with Goldstone too. Excellent, personalized financial analysis, and the staff is very professional and friendly. If we have any questions, Anthony and his talented staff are readily accessible. Thank you, Goldstone!?"

Another review by Anthony Gomez says, "It was a pleasure talking with the people at Goldstone Financial. Looked them up on the web and gave them a ring. Call 1 was to identify what needs you may have for your financial future and to set a time to go over some of the current landscape of your financial situation. The in-person meeting was very informative. They go over everything with you in detail, answering all your questions along the way, and I had many. Lastly, they presented me with a few options and explained the pros/cons. They operate with care and professionalism that you don't commonly see. Without reservation, I will highly recommend them to family, friends and neighbors. Thank you, Goldstone Financial!?"
