In another review, Tiffany shares that, ?I spoke with Dan at SC Home Offer about our home. While we didn't end up working with them at this time, my experience with Dan and the company was as good as I could have hoped. He listened well to our situation, was very up-front and clear about everything I needed to know, took his own time to go over several options for us and was a pleasure to work with. I feel that Dan does business with integrity and truly cares about what is best for not only him but his clients. I would highly recommend SC Home Offer to anyone looking into this option for selling their home.?
