"We wanted to remind our community that we are still the best alternative if you are looking to sell your house fast in Holbrook," states Rob Morris, a representative of Fast Home Sales. The traditional process to sell a house in Holbrook is by no means simple, quick or convenient, he says, presenting homeowners with many challenges far before they can even list their property for sale on the local market. The stressful and relentless nature of this environment can discourage homeowners from trying to sell their properties as well, and the exhausting process can take months without producing any serious buyers.

Morris says, "There are many reasons why you may need to sell your property quickly, though we are committed to helping you regardless of what your motives for selling may be. If you do not have the time to put towards selling your house in the traditional way or simply cannot afford the repairs, realtor fees and commissions necessary, we can take care of it all. We will take over the sales process and handle every part of it, offering you the reassurance and peace of mind that you will find is only possible when you work with experts in the industry."

Fast Home Sales is a full-service real estate investment company. Instead of using realtors and agents as mediators to find buyers for their clients? houses, they acquire each property as an investment themselves. The lengthy sales process is reduced from several months to only a few weeks as a result, as the homeowner is dealing directly with the buyer from the start. To guarantee the best results, Fast Home Sales relies on a team of real estate experts who ensure that every step of the sale goes smoothly and can remain stress-free for the seller. In the end, the closing time for the deal will depend on the seller's convenience or preference.

Morris says, "We can close in as little as seven days, though this depends on the details and the amount of paperwork needed to close the transaction. We can help you figure out inheritances, deal with foreclosures and get all of the paperwork done and ready for you to sign."

Fast Home Sales states that their home buying process is defined by three simple steps. They begin by gathering information about a client's property, which can be done entirely over the phone prior to the house's full inspection. This inspection is usually carried out within 24 hours of the client?s initial contact with the company. While they are willing to buy properties in any condition, this initial assessment (along with other factors, such as the price of similar properties sold in the area) will be used to produce an offer. During this meeting, a representative of the company will answer any inquiries that the homeowner may have. By the end of the day, they will present the homeowner a no-obligation offer for their house in its current condition. They can then follow through with this offer at their client's convenience, closing as soon as a couple of weeks after the initial meeting.

The company has an outstanding reputation in Holbrook, and they are known among local communities as one of the best real estate investment companies in the area. Through their website, they showcase several customer reviews that attest to the excellence of their services, including one written by Elizabeth Stuhr, who says, "Dan D?Ambrosio was a life saver. He bought our property that we had been unable to sell for almost 10 years. I really enjoyed working with him , as he was very reliable and personable. I would highly recommend Dan!"
