In Atlanta, The Brown Firm has released a new blog post regarding the dangers of driving drowsy. There is a rising number of drowsy driving car accidents in Atlanta, which are primarily caused by negligence of a driver. According to The Brown Firm, "Each year, in the United States, over two million people are injured in motor vehicle accidents, and about 330,000 lost their lives. Most car wrecks can easily be avoided if not for the negligence of drivers."

One common cause of car accidents in Atlanta is drowsy driving. Slower reaction time of drowsy drivers is the primary reason for such accidents. Harry Brown Jr, DC, JD, founder of the Georgia-based legal firm, explains how sleep deprivation can result in devastating outcomes. As Harry states, "When a person falls asleep behind the wheel, an accident is bound to happen. If you suffer because you were injured in an auto accident caused by someone else's recklessness, you should seek the help of an experienced personal injury lawyer."

According to the National Sleep Foundation and The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, more than 100,000 accidents take place annually due to drowsy driving in the United States. The blog post shares a few tips for drivers to be careful behind the wheel.

The Brown Firm has been representing victims of drowsy driving accidents for decades, including car crashes that happened because a driver fell asleep behind the wheel. Personal injury attorneys in Atlanta have an in-depth understanding of auto accident injury law and offer the best legal representation for drowsy driving victims.

"From our side, you can expect professional legal help. We investigate each auto accident case thoroughly to understand your situation better. Whether you need to fight with an insurance company, individual drivers, or a huge expedition firm, we're ready to take your case and work tirelessly to get you the compensation you deserve. We help motor vehicle accident victims in Georgia get the best settlement. Still, if an involved party doesn't want to cooperate, we're ready to take them to court and fight aggressively for what's yours,? says Harry Brown.

The client does not have to pay anything out of pocket for an Atlanta car accident lawyer at The Brown Firm, who works on a contingency fee basis and gets paid only upon winning compensation for the victims of the drowsy driving accident.

Victims of car accidents should seek medical help immediately ?for your case, health, or even life.? The need for gathering evidence from the scene of the car accident cannot be ignored. The victim of a drowsy driving accident should get the best photos of the crash if they are not seriously injured and are able to. Another important step for victims is to collect contact information from witnesses who are willing to testify in court.

Victims of a drowsy driving accident should seek the best legal help from The Brown Firm, who put a focus on customer service. The personal injury law firm believes in making things clear for clients right at the start, explaining their legal situation and presenting a possible solution to the problem. With over 30 years of experience representing victims of car accidents, Atlanta personal injury lawyers are committed to offering clients the best representation of their case and winning them the money they deserve. Victims or their loved ones can schedule a free consultation with The Brown Firm.
