December 30, 2020

December 30, 2020 -
The Brown Firm's top highway accident attorney in Atlanta has announced they are providing free legal consultations to those injured in car accidents on the highway. Serving all of Georgia, the firm has more than 30 years of expertise in dealing with highway accident injury lawsuits.

High-speed driving on highways increases the risk of auto collisions, multiple vehicle collisions, and truck accidents. Victims injured in these accidents have the right to seek compensation for their injuries. The Brown Law Firm fully recognizes the impact of a car accident and the need to recover damages for pain, suffering, medical expenses, car repair, and the loss of present and future wages. They provide free case evaluations through both phone and in-person consultations.

The Brown Firm's managing attorney is Harry Brown Jr, DC, JD is a licensed attorney and personal injury lawyer. He combines his medical and legal knowledge to help highway accident injury victims get compensation for their physical and emotional suffering. Injury victims are ensured a personalized approach and concerned support from The Brown Firms Atlanta highway accident lawyers with in-depth knowledge about personal injury law. With its demonstrated expertise, the firm significantly improves the chances of winning compensation.

Harry Brown, Jr., explains, "We're inviting you to book your free consultation if you have been injured in a highway accident in Atlanta. The Brown Firm is available to immediately assist you in legal matters relating to auto accidents and aggressively work to get you the compensation you deserve."

The initial consultation is essential to understand how to have a successful claim and maximize compensation. It also enables one to see how the consulted lawyer will approach the case and their responsiveness. The Brown Firm provides both legal and professional help regardless of a client's economic situation. Attorneys work on a contingency fee basis, which means they are paid after a client wins their personal injury lawsuit.

To make a claim stronger, the firm advises, "You can start collecting your first evidence at the scene of the auto accident. Try to take pictures using different angles. If there are any witnesses, talk to them and get their contact information, so a car accident attorney can contact them if they need to testify." It also cautions that the insurance company may try to "get information from you that could later be used against you."

One past client reviewed his experience with a 5-Star Car Accident lawyer rating and saying, "They had represented me in my car accident. They were great walking me through the entire process. Communication was frequent and clear. I am especially impressed with their representation and negotiation on my behalf. I would recommend them to anyone who is looking for a strong and experienced legal team."

The vast knowledge of personal injury law gives highway accident attorneys from The Brown Firm increases the probability of a car accident victim winning the compensation they deserve. They have all the necessary resources and experience to guide in the best possible way.
