Ultimate Flags Receives Many 5 Star Reviews On Their BBB Listing During the Busy Holiday Season

January 05, 2021

Okeechobee, Florida - January 05, 2021 -
Ultimate Flags, America?s oldest online flag store, is very pleased to announce that they have received several glowing reviews recently from those who purchased their goods during the busy holiday shopping season. This is a huge source of pride for the company, so they always like to share the reviews that their customers write about them. The company claims that it?s a combination of them having a large selection of quality flag products and their focus on providing excellent customer service that is the driving force behind the many 5-star reviews that they have received. Ultimate Flags offers flags that come in all different styles and themes and they even have other items such as hats, stickers, and pins too. They are a company that likes to sell flags and other products that show what?s in the hearts and on the minds of those that purchase them.

Many of the recent highly-positive reviews that Ultimate Flags has received showed up on their Better Business Bureau (BBB) listing where they have managed to maintain a very favorable standing. Renee Hartman stated, ?I was truly shocked at how fast my flags arrived. They are Christmas gifts and I was worried that they would not make it before Christmas. They are so beautiful and all are of excellent quality. I absolutely love them...thank you! Wayne S wrote in his 5-star review, ?Great selection and quality. Have ordered previously and am just as pleased with these flags. Excellent for gifts (some for myself). Customer service rocks.? Longtime satisfied customer Jeremy T declared, ?I have ordered several flags and banners from Ultimate Flags over the past two years and they provide prompt personalized service.?

The company spokesperson, Jonica Hough, says, ?Our Ultimate Flags reviews are something that we are very proud of. They directly reflect the effort that we put into trying to satisfy every customer that makes an online purchase from us. Even on that rare occasion when we get a bad review, we will still do whatever it takes to make that situation right with the customer. It?s all keeping with our desire to be that rare online seller that tries to make a somewhat impersonal type of shopping experience into something that?s much more customer-oriented and friendly.?

Hough continued by saying that in addition to putting in the extra effort to give their customers a more personal online shopping experience, they carry a wide variety of flags to have something that suits everyone?s individual needs and tastes. That includes many types of American Flags for sale include some that are replicas of those that are from as far back as the revolutionary war. She says they have flags from the Civil War too, including ones that represent both sides of the conflict. They also have flags that represent all 50 states and those of most counties around the world too. The company spokesperson says that they have not forgotten about those in the military and first responders either as they have entire flag collections dedicated to them. Some of the more unique flags that they carry are those representing second amendment rights and their many novelty flags.

Recently the company has also started making customer banners for their clients and Hough proclaimed the reviews in that area have also been very favorable so far. Jerry T. wrote, ?Thank you, folks, for a fantastic customized banner, it was the perfect finishing touch to my Holiday decorations. What a splendid way to celebrate the New Year!?. She indicated that with the success of these products, it has inspired them to try and be creative and come up with other products in the near future that can be customized to suit an individual?s needs.
