GlobalPR Agency Supports Businesses Entering Taiwan

Taipei, Taiwan, December 31, 2020 - GlobalPR Agency, a leading Taiwan based PR Agency working with local brands and manufacturers, supports businesses entering the domestic market.

While a big part of its business focuses on supporting Taipei based companies with their English language communication, local public relations support is also within its service scope.

Businesses looking for a Public Relations Firm in Taipei are in good hands with GlobalPR Agency. The multi-lingual team supports clients in English to facilitate smooth understanding. The experienced team translates communication messages to Mandarin Chinese for the local media and business partners. To reach the right media contact, the agency built an internal database of business media journalists and industry media contacts.

The even team finds suitable locations for the client and arranges dining, displays, hosts, and entertainment according to budget. As an international city, Taipei offers a wide range of hotels and venues to host press conferences and celebrations with business partners. Taipei's excellent facilities and the friendly business environment make the city a preferred location in the APAC region for more and more companies. GlobalPR's team helps international clients to find the best site and to overcome the language barrier.

Consumer electronics companies planning on entering the Taiwan market can rely on GlobalPR's public relations services for CE brands. Electronics companies targeting the ITC supply chain of Taiwan are using the industrial and electronics public relations services.

Companies from other sectors rely on the experience of GlobalPR's team in the fast-paced technology sector. The tight schedules and quick reaction time required in the IT industry enable their team to adapt and execute projects for clients from other sectors.
