Aaron M Blank, Esq., one of the managing partners at the firm, shared some comments regarding the launch of the new legal office, ?Throughout the many years that we?ve devoted to serving Maryland injury victims, we?ve learned that the number one obstacle standing between victims and justice is the access to experienced representation. Specifically, our research indicated that accident victims in Montgomery County may simply forego filing a lawsuit because they don?t know who to ask for help. Eventually, time limits established by statutes of limitation will elapse and they are out of luck.?

Mr. Blank continued, ?For this reason, we are on a mission to provide experienced injury attorneys to all who may benefit from their help. By opening this new law firm in Kensington & Silver Spring, we hope to get one step closer to accomplishing our mission of ensuring all accident victims have access to justice.?

From their Farragut Avenue law firm, the Maryland Injury Guys serve the following areas, among others: Kensington, Silver Spring, Takoma, Brightwood, Forest Glen, South Kensington, North Kensington, Garrett Park, Bethesda, and Friendship Heights.

The Silver Spring & Kensington injury attorneys also wanted to notify the community about upcoming events they will be holding, both in-person and virtually. For the latest schedule, visit their site linked above.
