January 14, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Legacy Insurance Group, an insurance brokerage in Sterling, VA, is offering its commercial insurance services throughout Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, and Washington D.C. Interested customers can find out more about the company on its Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/LegacyInsuranceGroupLLC>.

The company says that due to the raging pandemic in 2020, local insurance brokerage has become a dominant market for Northern Virginia, Maryland & DC commercial insurance. Companies have had to deal with forced closures, shutdowns, and dwindling customer numbers as most people opt to stay indoors or delay important tasks. This has affected small and local businesses the most as they have to make do with a stymied footfall and overall lower worker morale. All these factors have affected the bottom line of hundreds of small establishments in Sterling and surrounding areas. Many long time businesses that were already struggling have finally kicked the bucket and joined the ranks of other such shuttered establishments all across the country.

Legacy Insurance Group says that, through this pandemic, it has helped dozens of local business owners including long-time established businesses, brand new business ventures, and struggling business owners. Legacy Insurance Group says it ran a campaign in the community sponsoring local restaurants by making large donations in exchange for gift cards they raffled off to their customers to drive patronage to local restaurants. These steps have earned the company a lot of goodwill in the surrounding areas due to positive word of mouth.

A spokesperson for the company says, "We are merely a vessel for the aspirations for the hundreds of self-starters and entrepreneurs that use our services. We are surviving due to the can-do spirit of the American people. It is just logical and natural for us to give back to the community when it is time to step up. Our team is rapidly growing and plans to add additional staff this year as well as solidify some new partnerships with many of the top leading insurance carriers in the industry." Legacy Insurance Group has amassed over 150 5-star reviews on Google with dozens of testimonials from satisfied business owners of commercial insurance. One of the 5-star reviews by Ali Marie Richardson says, "Cannot sing Sean Goral's praises high enough. He was quick to reply to my emails and patiently guided my husband and me through the process of getting homeowner's insurance for our first home purchase. He also painlessly walked us through quotes for auto and umbrella insurance. Really satisfied with all the coverage we are getting and the ease with which we were able to reach a human without being on hold in excess of a half-an-hour like we used to be with our former insurance company.?"
