Their services include gym cleaning, office cleaning, hospital cleaning, strata cleaning, child care centre cleaning, school cleaning, construction cleaning, among others. ?Most of our clients are quite happy with our services. They often share their positive feedback and testimonials on our website, Google page and social pages. I believe the reason for such a huge success rate of Clean Group is our commitment to quality and safety,? says Suji Siv.

Clean Group has a 100% satisfaction guarantee policy, which ensures that the company clients are happy and completely satisfied with the cleaning services provided to them. The company has a no-question asked satisfaction policy and is always eager to fix the problem if there is an issue with a service.

?We always try to understand the problems and goals of a client first before starting a service. This helps us create a systematic cleaning strategy to target their particular needs. This is why we encourage our clients to request a free, on-site quote from our website in order to enable us to better analyse their cleaning requirements & scope,? adds Suji Siv.
